馮秉芬獎
Fung Ping Fan Scholarship (2025-2026)

Aim of the Scholarship

In line with the late Sir Kenneth Fung Ping Fan's motto "Service above Self", the scholarship was established to support young scholars in pursuit of whole person development along the five core areas: ethical and moral (德), intellectual (智), physical (體), social and interpersonal (群) and aesthetic (美). The awardees will be designated Fung Ping Fan Scholars.

Number and Value of the Awards

There is one quota, in the amount of HK$50,000. The Scholarship may be used to pay for tuition fee for a relevant course of a programme and postgraduate study; it may also be used to defray a course for participation in an international event or for a relevant exploratory trip; the use as seed money to start an creative entrepreneurial project will also be entertained.

Eligibility

1. Applicants must be final-year students of United College. If an awardee's graduation is deferred, his/her eligibility for the award will be rescinded.
2. Applicants must have proven records of outstanding achievements in the above-named five core areas of whole person development during their academic career.
3. Applicants are committed to serving our society and contributing to the Hong Kong population after graduation.

Report of Study

Successful applicants will be required to present a report, within three months of completion of the scholarships' tenure of their progress and achievement.

Application

1. Please apply on-line at the United College webpage <https://cloud.itsc.cuhk.edu.hk/webform/view.php?id=13728312> during the period from 2 March to 5:30pm on 13 March 2026.
2. Short-listed candidates will be interviewed by a panel appointed for this purpose by the College Scholarships and Student Finance Committee in April. Those who are not able to attend the interview in person will not be considered.
